Chief, Reports Division

Allocation of Responsibility for Economic Planning.

1. In attempting to coordinate a current project, D/R has found that the division of responsibility between D/S and D/A on the subject of economic planning is apparently not clear to all concerned.

2. [REDACTED] asked me to have a D/S paper on economic planning coordinated with D/A because D/A had been assigned responsibility for projects involving planning. D/R undertook to require this coordination, and D/S, on its part, complied.

3. It now appears, however, that D/S understands that D/A's responsibility for planning is a limited one and that D/S is still responsible for projects involving over-all planning. [REDACTED] apparently concurs in this view.

4. Is there any statement of this division of responsibility or any general statement of D/A's functions that could be made available to D/R for guidance?
